

Yang Guo

Associate, Yuanda

Shanghai

+86 21 6105 0952

yguo@yuandawinston.com

Practices	Regulatory Compliance; Intellectual Property
Industries	Technology, New Media & Telecommunications; Health Care
Admissions	China New York, U.S.
Education	The University of Texas School of Law, Austin, TX, USA J.D. Fudan University, B.S.

Guo Yang is an associate at Yuanda China Law Offices based in Shanghai. His practice is focused on Regulatory Compliance, Dispute Resolution, and Intellectual Property. Guo Yang is experienced in advising high-tech company clients on their foreign legal issues, including export control and sanction-related compliance, dispute resolution, foreign investment, intellectual property, etc.

Before joining Yuanda, Guo Yang worked at the capital market group of a U.S. law firm's Shanghai office.

Experience

Regulatory Compliance

- Provided legal opinion to a top chip manufacturer in China on its dealing with its U.S. suppliers' export control due diligence investigation requests.
- Assisted a well-known semiconductor machine manufacturer to establish its export control compliance system
- Advised a Chinese bio-tech company on compliance issues for their operation in U.S.

Dispute Resolution

- Represented a well-known home-appliance manufacturers for its patent infringement litigation in the U.S. and related IPR proceedings
- Represented a technology investment company for its employment dispute in U.S. court with a former senior executive of its acquired target company.

- Represented a Chinese trade company for its international proceeding at Swiss International Arbitration Center against a Turkish company
- Provided legal opinion to a top memory chip manufacturer regarding the discovery scope for U.S. litigation

Intellectual Property

- Provided patent due diligence investigation service to an investment company who was interested in gene-sequencing technology.
- Provided legal opinion regarding a pharmaceutical company's trade secret litigation in U.S. court.
- Advised a memory chip manufacturer in filing complaint against an unauthorized third-party selling its product
- Assisted the defense of a design patent of a foreign clothing manufacturer against invalidation claims.